

1999 MIS

Statistical Analyst, Palmetto GBA, Columbia, SC

The MIS program was a great fit for me to extend my knowledge of sampling, data analysis and computing while I was already working full-time as a statistical analyst developing statistical methodologies and analyzing national Medicaid and Medicare claims data to help ensure claims are paid appropriately. Luck happens when preparation meets opportunity. The requirements for my job changed and a masters degree was a must shortly after I received my MIS.